Dues Renewal

The joys of being connected to West Virginia University go well beyond our years as a student. Joining the Davis College of Agriculture, Natural Resources, and Design Alumni Association is a great and affordable way to stay in touch with your alma mater. If you are not already a lifetime member of the WVU Davis College Alumni Association, you may miss out on all that we have to offer, if you do not show support on an annual basis.

Scholarship Fund Contribution

Please take a few moments to reflect on your experience at the college and consider how support from the alumni association may have helped your situation. Your contribution enables the WVU Davis College of ANRD Alumni Association to award scholarships, support student leadership and recognize outstanding alumni - all efforts to support the University and the alumni's connection to it. The more support we can generate, the more we can do for the college.
